March 20, 2002 LB 1309

didn't do all of what the Governor recommended. And I...we can go through all of these, but the fact is, is that the committee evaluated each and every one of the Governor's recommendations, as well as other areas of the budget, and made decisions whether or not to go ahead and make those cuts or not. And I might have even suggested in the committee that we didn't make a cut here, because we did it during special session and my thought is, is that these are low-income kids that might otherwise not get the opportunity to go to college. And, quite honestly, I don't really care if it's a nonprofit school that they're going to, or the university, or community college. It doesn't matter to me, just so long as these kids have an opportunity to go to college, that to me that's the important thing. It's disappointing and kind of discouraging to me that we...the committee makes a decision, and I'm not saying it's the final word, but in the, you know, I just hope that in the interest of time that we don't make a decision maybe that we shouldn't. I don't support the motion to recommit to committee and I don't support other underlying amendment. I think we should stay the line and if Senator Chambers wants to talk about the priests and that, why, he's free to do that. I don't have any trouble with that. But what...we got to remember what we're talking about here and it's about low-income kids who might not otherwise go to college that might be able to with this money, and I...I do not support Senator Chambers' amendments. Thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Bourne. Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Is this my third time?

SENATOR CUDABACK: Be your third time, Senator, I'm sorry, yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: That's okay. I usually get that warning. I try to keep track. Senator Bourne said it doesn't matter to him whether these students go to private schools or whatever. Well, it does matter to me if public money is being spent. I'm going to continue with my reading. I left off where it said Curtiss declined to answer questions earlier this year about the Montana case. Why would he decline to answer questions? Because the scoundrel was wrong and the cover was pulled on him...off him. He didn't come clean. Let me continue. In a letter to the
